

Waterburian enters plea in kidnapping

John Regan, center, of Waterbury, is escorted by Saratoga County Sheriff's deputies from Saratoga County Court on Friday morning in Ballston Spa, N.Y., after a court appearance on charges stemming from an Oct. 31 kidnapping attempt of a teenage girl from her high school parking lot in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Albany television station WTEN reported Regan, a salesman, pleaded innocent to attempted kidnapping. Regan's attorney said the evidence will show Regan wasn't trying to assault the girl and that the kidnapping allegation resulted from a misunderstanding.
